FAQ

Can I bring my cooler? Yes, you can, but not with beer in it. Beer/Alcohol and glass are not permitted.

Can I bring a stadium chair? Yes, you may bring a stadium chair.

How does reserved seating work at Stateline? Reserved seating is done by section, not seat number. Any section painted "Red" is Red Reserved, and any section painted "Blue" is Blue Reserved. Non-painted sections are "General Admission".

See the map below for an example of Red and Blue Reserved seating

FAQ

If I buy a pit pass, can I enter the grandstands? Yes

Does Stateline accept Credit Cards? Yes, Stateline accepts all major credit and debit cards at all checkout locations.

Can I buy Beer at Stateline? Yes, Stateline has a beer concession on the NY Side of the track and for large events, like World of Outlaws, High Limit and All Stars, on both sides.

Can I bring food to Stateline? Yes you can, within reason. For example, taking in “many” pizzas or bulk servings of food is not permitted.

Can my kids ride scooters on the grounds? No, they cannot. Stateline will confiscate scooters and the rider may be asked to leave the premises.

Can I camp at Stateline? You may “overnight park” with your RV or Camper. There are no hookups at Stateline, however, our restrooms are open 24 hours during events.

Is Smoking allowed in the grandstands? No, it is not, per New York State law, however, fans may smoke in designated areas behind the grandstand area.

What is Super 7 Racing? Super 7 Racing represents the “7” weekly racing classes at Stateline. When you see “Super 7” on the schedule, that means we are running all or most of our weekly classes.

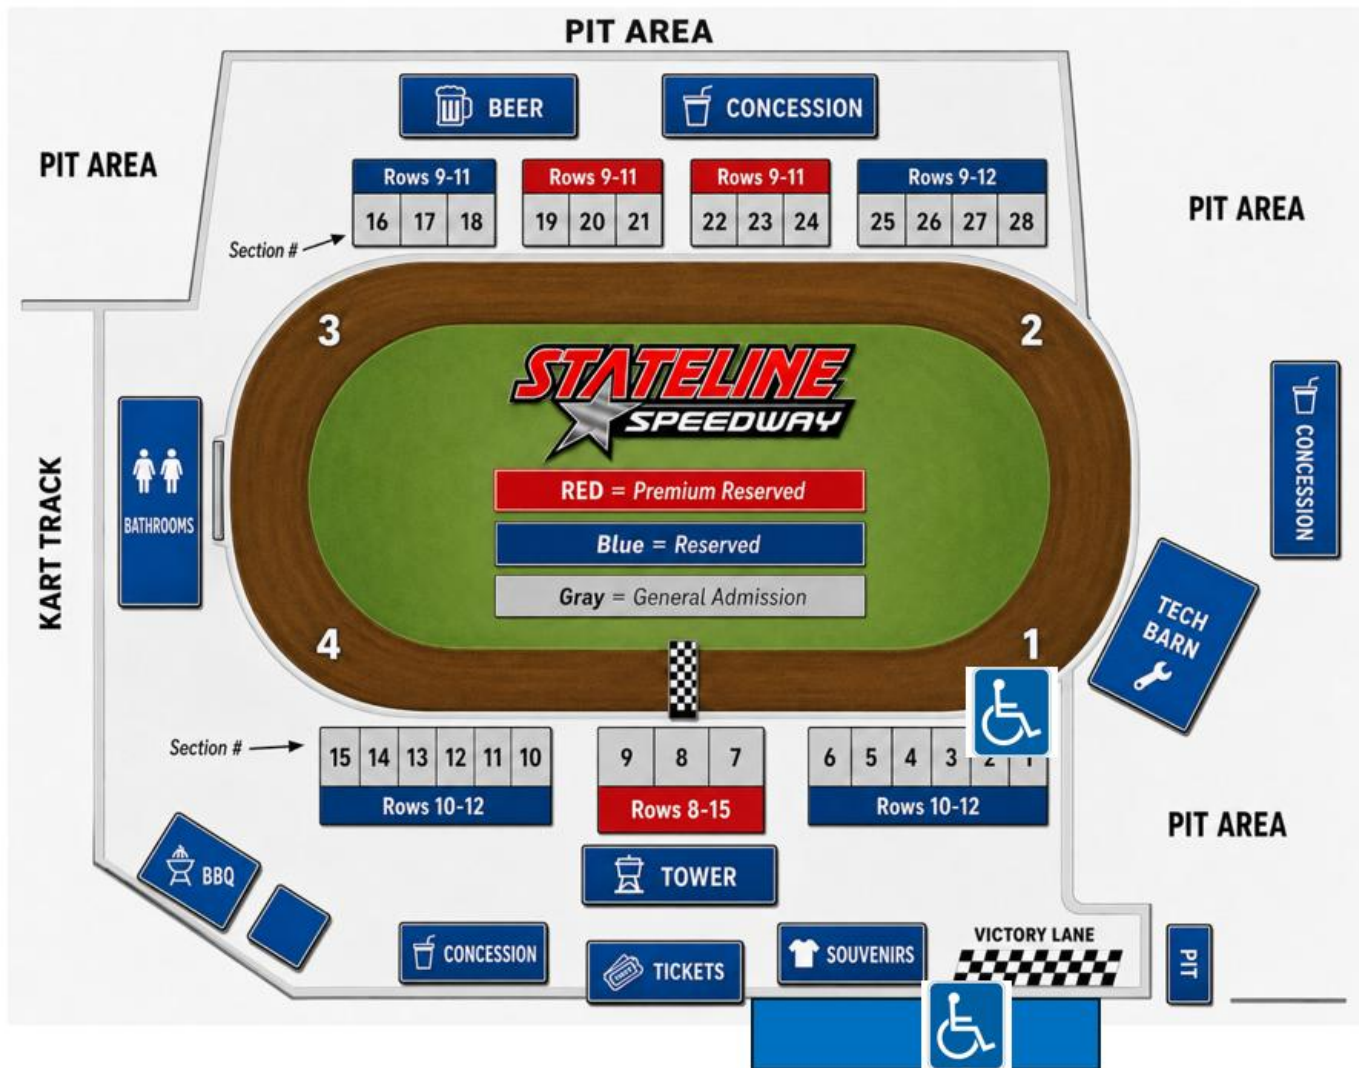

Does Stateline charge for parking? No, however, we do sometimes sell “Reserved Parking” for an additional cost.

Do you offer group discounts? Yes, we do, please email info@statelinespeedway.com for rates and more information.

Handicap Access

Stateline's Handicap Accessible entrance is situated between the tower and pit area. Handicap parking along with a handicap grandstand section make it possible for ALL to enjoy the fun!
